A BRIGHTER TOMORROW

tarangeeta.com

More than a stole.

A story in color.

Hand-painted stoles from a women-led artisan collective in rural Bengal. TARANGEETA began with a passion for reviving an art form at risk of disappearing, while creating meaningful opportunities for the rural women who carry its tradition forward. Each piece is a meeting of heritage and contemporary life, crafted by women, for a more colorful tomorrow.

*Same hands.
New stories.*

WEST BENGAL, INDIA WHERE EVERY LINE BEGINS BY HAND.

Each design is drawn in hot wax, line by line. The cloth is dyed in layers, allowing color to settle naturally. What emerges is a one-of-a-kind piece of wearable art.
